

Commemorating the 75th anniversary of the Internment

A Suitcase of Memories

Joy Kogawa
and Soramaru Takayama
Poetry Performance

Thurs
May 11
7 - 9 pm

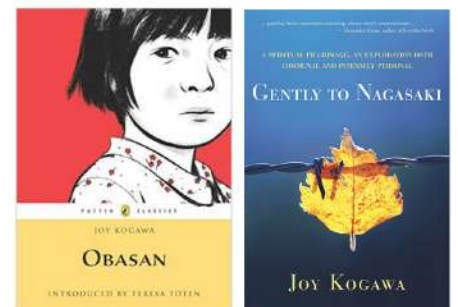

『話せない沈黙がある。
話したくない沈黙がある。』

Venue: Japanese Hall : 487 Alexander Street, Vancouver (Historic Powell St: PreWar Japanese Canadian neighbourhood)

To mark the historic milestone of 75 years since the Internment of Japanese Canadians in 1942, world renown author, Joy Kogawa reads poems from her novels "Obasan," and "Gently to Nagasaki," within a dramatic poetic monologue created by Soramaru Takayama. Be guided on a pilgrimage through Joy's memories of the internment, dispossession and dispersal of Japanese Canadians. Reception with Joy and book-signing after performance. Don't miss this rare and special night to take a memorial journey with Joy.

Adults: $15 (Eventbrite.ca, search by "joy kogawa", or at door)
Students: FREE (18 years old & under no charge)
VJLS-JH $10
Members

For more info: call 604-254-2551, www.vjls-jh.com, www.tasai.ca
Limited seating, first come first serve.

Venue
Partner

Host

Community Partners

powell street festival society パウエル祭協会

